

Possible Expenses and Average Prices

Wondering how much money you should bring with you? Below is a table of possible expenses you should consider and a list of average prices:

Medical insurance (mandatory)	6,200 AMD per month	In-country health insurance coverage through Nairi Insurance is mandatory. The Logistics of your enrollment will be taken care of during your in country orientation.
Homestay basic cost		If you are eligible for travel reimbursement at 100%, we will pay 100% of the basic cost of the host family. If you are eligible for travel reimbursement at 50%, we will pay 50% of the basic cost of the host family. If you are eligible for travel reimbursement at 0%, we will pay 0% of the basic cost of the host

		family. The basic cost of the host family is 102,000AMD (March 15-November 15). For winter months (November 15 – March 15), the family is compensated with the amount of 115,000 drams per month.
Dinners with host families (optional)	40,000 AMD per month	If you are doing homestay, you will not pay for breakfast. You may choose to pay an optional fee for dinner at home.
Laundry at homestay (optional)	15,000 AMD per month	This cost is optional, if you decide to do your laundry at home.
Visa fee (if required)	15,000 AMD	This fee is for a single-entry 120-day visa.

Typical monthly expenses may range between 200-700 USD depending on your spending habits. Below are some specific expenses that might be of interest to you.

Restaurants	Average Price
Meal in a restaurant	2,500 – 3,500 AMD

Fast food	700 - 1,500 AMD
Transportation	Average Price
One-way ticket (local transport)	100 - 150AMD
Taxi (depending on distance)	500 – 2,500+ AMD
Rent per month for one bedroomfurnished apartment	Average Price
Phone and data plan (depending on plan)	Phone and data plan (depending on plan)